

Character Sketch

Write a character sketch of someone who has had some special meaning in your life. Provide specific details about the person and your relationship, and explain how this person helped form you into who you are today.

Publish your character sketch on the blog.
Footnote the quotation that you've chosen from the novel, which shows the relationship between two characters.